⬛ Description: A gem of a clock for those who like to live life on the edge, CosmoTime XL is also available in a day version (MTD) and an orange version (XOM). Both clocks play nicely with the CosmoTime clocks and widgets (CosmoTime XL comes with many more clocks). Features: ⬛ Support for ITYQ: Isomorphism between $C^{\infty}(M)/\mathbb{R}$ and the space of diffeomorphisms of M Let M be a differentiable manifold, $\mathcal{F}(M)$ be the space of smooth functions from M to M and $\mathcal{D}(M)$ be the space of diffeomorphisms. Is there an isomorphism between $C^{\infty}(M)$ and $\mathcal{F}(M)$? I have found this question here. However, I have tried to show that f satisfies the differential equation on M iff $f\in C^{\infty}(M)$ and f maps M to M. However I do not know if it is true since I do not know how to show the inverse part of it. A: Let us denote by $dg\colon TM\to TM$ the tangent map of $g\colon M\to M$. Then a smooth map $g\colon M\to M$ is an element of $C^{\infty}(M)$ iff the map $dg\colon TM\to TM$ is invertible. So we have: $$C^{\infty}(M)/\Bbb R\cong \{T\colon TM\to TM\mid T\text{ invertible}\}$$ Now choose a chart of your manifold, and a local embedding, $M\subset\Bbb R^n$. Note that $\Bbb R^n$ can be viewed as a vector space, so the usual quotient by scalars works. The tangent map for an invertible affine transformation of $\Bbb R^n$ is invertible, and so affine mappings of M are in the form you are looking for. If you want 09e8f5149f

CosmoTime XL is a very unique clock widget, far in the future. It's not updated with any tricks or updates in the UI to collect information from you and make you think the widget is a normal standard clock. It's just a simple watch in a vast other world. Taps in digits 0..9 to display time with a secret countdown. Covers a wide range of formats: YYYY:MM:DD:HH:MM:SS, YYYY:MM:DD:HH:MM:SS.fm, YYYY:MM:DD:HH:MM:SS.gs, yyyy.mm.dd.hh.mm.ss.fm, yyyy.mm.dd.hh.mm.ss.gs, and YYYY:MM:DD HH:MM:SS.gm. Would you like to complete this puzzle? Just touch the dots of the dots on the keypad on the clock and some numbers will appear! Update: September 18, 2011... There are now 6 level of dots. Each dot has a different color. If you touch the "tops" of the dots they will turn to another color. You can make the puzzle more challenging by opening and closing the eyes of the clock or closing and opening the eyes of the clock, while touching the dots and you can scroll the Dot Counts to a number from 1-10. Taps on the dots to select 'days' from a dropdown menu. 1) Monday 2) Tuesday 3) Wednesday 4) Thursday 5) Friday 6) Saturday 7) Sunday If you touch a number in the list, it will toggle between that number and the clock display (greens, oranges, blues, etc). Nothing is added to your home screen yet, but are you interested in knowing when the clock is going to change? Tap on the clock, you will see the time change, tap again, and the time will remain the same. Looking for a very simple countdown? Taps on the clock and the clock will count down by 10 seconds. No other numbers will be displayed in the clock, just the clock number and the time. Includes a stop watch Give the time to some friends or family members using the friends and family feature. For every person you add, you can give any hour, a day, a week, or the current day to

When designing a great MMO title we consider both the hardware and the software. They're both equally important, and yet we as designers are mostly familiar with hardware. I mean, who wants to design an MMO for those with obsolete technology? Right? Well, it turns out that not all of our users are as familiar with software as they are hardware, and you may find that the MMO you're looking to play can't handle your computer, so it may be time to upgrade your hardware. In the hopes of getting you off to a good start, we've got a very easy guide with
